

Start the New Year off Right with an Informative Seminar!

Coming Thursday, January 19th, 2012, United Way of Central Alabama will be hosting a seminar geared towards helping partner agencies stay informed on current issues affecting non- profit agencies. This seminar will include a discussion of the following topics:

- acknowledgement and disclosure requirements for donor contributions (tax receipt-individual and corporate)
- your organization's registration and reporting requirements with the Alabama Attorney General
- nonprofit organization's annual fundraisers and sales tax receipting
- worker classification – independent contractor or employee
- the IRS's Voluntary Classification Settlement Program

Presenting from 2 to 4 p.m. in the UWCA 5th Floor Board Room will be J. Timothy Downard of Haynes Downard, LLP Accounting Firm. Haynes Downard is a full-service public accounting firm with offices in Birmingham and Jasper which offer services in the areas of auditing, accounting, tax, regulatory compliance, and management consulting services. The firm is unique by providing a myriad of services to various non-profit organizations, educational and governmental entities. Haynes Downard serves over 80 non-profit organizations.

If you are interested in attending or would like more information, please contact Mary Gwin, mgwin@uwca.org no later than January 12, 2012. You will be receiving CPE credit for this session. Each agency is invited to send two staff persons to the session and there will be no cost assigned for this seminar.

Hope to see you there!!
