STORIES OF IMPACT IN WALKER COUNTY

MORE THAN JUST A RESOURCE

Fellowship House Recovery Services, a United Way of Central Alabama partner agency, provides a substance abuse recovery program designed to meet the unique needs of individuals suffering from substance use and co-occurring disorders. Established in 1965, Fellowship House aids in the personal, social and vocational adjustment necessary for the maintenance of a sober and productive life. She Recovers, a program serving women in Walker County, offers pregnant or parenting mothers struggling with substance use a one-stop resource for prenatal care, substance use treatment, medication, parenting support, counseling and peer recovery support.
